

“My entire congregation was forced to evacuate...”

Meet Akira Sato, Senior Pastor of Fukushima First Bible Baptist Church—located just a few miles from Japan's failed nuclear reactor site. His town evacuated. His congregation displaced. And today, members of Fukushima First Baptist Church are on their own Exodus journey. But their faith? It's unshaken.

Rev. Sato, author of the best-selling book “Exodus Church,” is compelled to share their collective experience with the global church in North America and beyond, and now you have a chance to hear firsthand how God has carried them through.

Through our disaster relief work, God provides Asian Access with a front row seat to see His goodness and grace in the face of unspeakable disaster.

Join Asian Access in early October in Los Angeles or Chicago for an update from Japan that you'll likely not soon forget. Experience stories from people who understand the situation firsthand in disaster stricken areas.
